

JEAN KING – BOARD MEMBER

Jean King retired from the New York State Department of Correctional Services and Community Supervision, where she was employed for over three decades. Jean held positions as a teacher, Education Supervisor and Assistant Deputy Superintendent before reaching Deputy Superintendent, a position she held at Greene and Woodbourne Correctional Facilities.

Jean earned a B.A. from Molloy College, an M.A. from Hunter College and a Certificate of Advanced Study from SUNY New Paltz. Recipient of the 2010 Citizen Award for Community Engagement from the Steinhardt School at New York University, she is a resident of Ulster County and is the parent of three children and the grandmother of three as well. She has served as a board member of Network SSI since 2015.